PI or responsible person (head of the study)

Melanie Uth

Subject area

Sociolinguistics, syntax, language variation

Method / Type of data

This dataset comprises three types of data:

- Gap filling task
- Acceptability judgment task
- Sociolinguistic interview

Participants (of the study)

40 adult speaker: 24 Spanish monolinguals, and 16 Spanish Maya bilingual

Short description (of the study)

The gap filling task consisted of a written presentation of the stimulus to be completed orally following an auditive prompt recorded by a native speaker. The task included a total of 12 target items and 36 fillers. The items involved sentences with oblique relative clauses, in which the complementizer was missing. The judgment task explored the acceptability of various relative complementizers in oblique relative clauses. Participants were presented with written sentences, and asked to judge them on a 7-point Likert scale. The sociolinguistic interviews involved questions on cultural topics and were conducted as a dialogue between the speaker and one of the researchers.

STORAGE AND LONG-TERM PRESERVATION

Archive

Does this dataset have to be preserved for long-term?

yes

How long does the data need to be stored?

What are the reasons this dataset must be preserved for the long-term?

- Use in a publication / Evidence of good scientific practice
- Reuse (if anonymizable data) in subsequent projects or by others
- Legal obligations
- Documentation because it is socially relevant
- Self-commitment
- Evidence of good scientific practice
- DFG requirements

Where will the data (including metadata, documentation, and relevant code) be stored or archived after the end of the project?

- CRC 1287 File-Server
- OSF
